

Distinguished Lecture sponsored by
UMC Office of Research
Collaboration for Research in Communicable Diseases
The Delta Region AIDS Education and Training Center

“Hope and Despair: Lessons Learned from the Global HIV Epidemic”

Presented by:
Timothy Flanigan, MD

Director, Division of Infectious Diseases,
The Miriam and Rhode Island Hospitals
Dean's Professor of Medical Science and Professor of Medicine
Brown University School of Medicine
Providence, RI

Objectives: Upon completion of this activity, the participant should be able to....:

1. Review key factors that contributed to decreasing HIV prevalence rates in different countries
2. Demonstrate the interrelatedness of treatment and prevention
3. Stimulate discussion on interventions to address the challenges of HIV/AIDS in the US

WHERE: R-153 (Lower Amphitheatre)
WHEN: Tuesday, January 31, 2012 from 12:00-12:50

Lunch will be provided by the Department of Medicine

The University Of Mississippi School Of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. As an organization accredited for continuing medical education, the University of Mississippi School Of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™ toward the AMA Physician's Recognition Award. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.